Deadlines for Issuing Spoiled Absentee Ballots:

- By Mail – Deadline is 5:00 p.m. on the Friday prior to Election Day
- In Person – Deadline is 4:00 p.m. on the Monday prior to Election Day. Ballots issued on Monday must be voted at City Hall.
- Cannot be issued on Election Day, voter must go to his/her precinct and sign an affidavit there.

1) Voter must complete a written request to spoil a ballot and have a new ballot issued. Use this form, or if the voter cannot come into City Hall, a written request with the same information can be prepared at home and sent to us or dropped off by a friend or family member. This form may be used when a ballot is lost or not received by the voter through U.S. mail before Election Day.

2) Forms may be sent via postal mail or emailed to the voter. Someone other than the voter can take a form to the voter, but the ballot must then be sent to the voter. The request must be signed by the voter.
